We suggest that you study the list at the left and check off your own guide for the things you will do during Appomattox's Annual Clean-Up Week, April 22-29. Then doubtless you will have other things to add in order to participate in this activity. Let's make our town attractive to the visiting public, and also "just for ourselves!" The Clean-Up Week is sponsored by the Garden Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. But it's a full-scale community project. Let's keep Appomattox growing, and keep it attractive!

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

On Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, the State Student Participation Association will convene at Carver-Price for the 9th Annual State Convention. Over 217 students and 68 sponsors are supposed to attend, along with guest speakers, principals and many more invited guests. On Friday, the Executive officers will meet. On Saturday the main convention will begin. It will be divided into disquission groups and an afternoon business session, after which a social will be held as a final ending to the conference, and a separating of newly-made friends.

The baseball team played its second game Thursday with Campbell County High School. The score of the game will be in next week's news.

Raymond Lawing, Junior, and Bobby Booker, are attending the State Executive N. F. A. meeting, which is being held at Virginia State College in Petersburg.

The assembly program was held in the gym on Wednesday, at 1:00 P. M., by Mrs. Hamlet's sixth grade group. The title of the play was 'Living Together in the Old World.' The play was presented again Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Until next week, our thought is: "All Christian worship is a witness of the resurrection of Him who liveth for ever and ever. Because he lives, 'Now abideth faith, hope, charity.' "

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY

MARTIN: In loving memory of our husband and daddy, Thomas M. Martin, who passed away six years ago on Friday, April 13th, 1951.

God called you home,
It was His will;
But in our hearts,
We love you still.
Your memory is as dear today,
As in the hour you passed away.
—Sadly missed by Wife
(1tc) and Children.

IN REMEMBRANCE

Loving memory of our dear Daddy and Husband, Alex Gobble, who passed away one year ago, the 7th of April.

A remembrance of mine is a sad
Regret and a day I never forgot.
Sleep on and take a little rest,
For it's true we loved you,
But God loved you best.
So he came and took you to
The bright and golden shore,
Where dying comes no more.
—Sadly missed by
Wife and Children.
(1tc) Etta L. Gobble.

Martin Section 4-H Club

The president called the meeting to order and then the meeting was turned over to Mrs. B. G. Anderson and Mr. Jim Smith. Papers were given to us on Clean-Up campaign which will begin April 22. The topic for this month for discussion was then adjourned until next month.
